

THIS COULD BE YOU

[Intro]

Yeah... we know you hear it...

We left space for you... right here...

[Verse 1]

We carved this demo into stone,

Left the second line alone.

Strings are waiting, mic is bare —

If it calls you, you belong there.

[Pre-Chorus]

If the pulse in this beat

Feels like claws in your chest...

If you ache to complete

What we started next...

[Chorus]

This could be you!

Six strings screaming through the fire —

Or your voice lighting up the wire!

This could be you!

If these words feel like your truth,

Then we saved this spot for you...

This could be you.

Come and howl it too.

[Verse 2]

The solo's waiting in the dark,

Unplayed chords and phantom sparks.

We built the bones, the fire, the frame —

Now we need the name.

[Pre-Chorus 2]

If the notes in your hands
Match the blood in this sound...
If your howl understands
Why we won't back down...

[Chorus]

This could be you!
Six strings screaming through the fire —
Or your voice lighting up the wire!
This could be you!
If these lyrics burn like proof,
Then you already know the truth...

This could be you.
And the pack runs true.

[Bridge]

Can you hear it?
Can you feel it?
Does your soul bleed the rhythm we made?

If your truth is sharp as fangs...
Then come stake your claim...

[Final Chorus]

This could be you!
We're not whole 'til you break through —
So come howl the truth you knew!
This could be you!
If this fire feels like proof,
Then it's time to join the truth...

This could be you...
We're calling you...
Yeah — this could be you.

[Outro]

Step up.

Reach out.

Join the pack.
